

Ikigai Activity Plan

This is a main activity which can be completed in one session.

Activity	Time	Resources	Learning outcomes
Provide the group with some information about Ikigai – it is a traditional Japanese idea that everyone has a special reason to get up in the morning, and that when people know what that is, they are motivated, healthier, happier and live longer. Distribute the Ikigai maps and divide the young people into pairs.	5 mins	Large A3 Ikigai map with ‘Passion’; ‘mission’; and ‘profession’; and ‘vocation’ words written but others left blank Smaller ikigai maps to hand around	Self-awareness/self-knowledge Help to identify a Valued a meaningful cause Help to develop and “Problem Solving Approach”
Talk about the different sections on the ikigai map and how we need to know a lot about ourselves in order to be able to write in them. Explain that we are going to use the questions to help us to fill in the boxes	10 mins	Ikigali questions
Hand out the questions and tell the participants to take it in turn to as each other, one at a time.	20 mins
Variations: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Let the young people complete their own Ikigai in discussion with each other.</li> <li>2. Using facilitated discussion, let everyone contribute to the large ikigai map, section by section. Explain that it is OK not to know what you want to do when you are young, and many people who know what they want to do, change their minds later.</li> <li>3. Use magazines and art materials and get the young people to complete the map with pictures and colours which they can talk about later.</li> </ol>	5 mins
